

Midway FFA Broiler & Rabbit Eligibility Checklist

Student Name:	YES	NO
Student submitted weekly google form to their species teacher <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2 or more non-responses will result in a no
Student exhibited their project at the McLennan County Junior Livestock Show <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The student's project made the minimum weight requirement for their species and was exhibited at MCJLS
Student attended one of the Livestock Information meetings on _____ or _____
Students are expected to maintain excellent behavior during school and represent Midway FFA to the highest degree. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If a student receives ISS for five or more days during the school year, they will receive a "no" (partial days spent in ISS will be considered a day) • If a student is placed in DAEP, they will receive a "no"
Student attended the species clinic on _____.
Student's AET record book approved by Ag teacher at final checkpoint. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SAE Plan- description, time investment, financial investment, and learning objectives (suggested outlines on AET should be followed) • Finances- receipts entered correctly spanning the entire feeding period <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o What should be included for most exhibitors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Purchase Price ▪ Validation Fee ▪ Entry Fees for Shows ▪ Feed and Supply Purchases ▪ Vet Bills (if applicable) ▪ Sale Price • Journal entries- minimum of 5 journal entries documenting animal's progress. Entries should include weights, health, feed, changes, etc.

Students receiving three or more "NOs" on the checklist will not be permitted to exhibit a livestock project through Midway FFA the following year. Students receiving two or fewer "NOs" will be eligible to exhibit a project at MCJLS the following year. Students receiving one or fewer "NOs" will be eligible to exhibit a project at the major level the following year.