

Midway FFA Livestock Show Rules and Regulations

1. All exhibitors should be familiar with all Midway FFA Livestock Show rules and regulations as listed in this document.
2. All exhibitors must be eligible according to U.I.L. Eligibility Rules to be eligible to participate in the Midway FFA Livestock Show.
3. All exhibitors must be dues-paying "active" members in good standing of Midway FFA.
4. All show animals must be exhibited by their owner. Exceptions would include:
 - a. When an exhibitor has more than one entry in the same Jackpot class. In this case, the exhibitor, with permission from an Ag teacher, may designate an approved Midway FFA member to exhibit their project.
5. All market animals in the Midway FFA Livestock Show must be present at the Midway Ag Facility and weighed-in by the times designated in the show schedule. An Ag teacher will be present to supervise weighing and record weights. Should a student fail to weigh-in their market animal by the designated time, they will forfeit their right to show.
6. If an animal is unruly or becomes a danger to other exhibitors either in the barn or the show ring, the judge or an Ag teacher may choose to have the animal removed, thus disqualifying them from the show and any prizes/awards.
7. Should any animal awarded a prize be disqualified or ineligible for any reason, animals gaining the lower prizes shall graduate up into higher positions next in order above them.
8. All placings by judges will be considered final.
9. Midway FFA is not responsible for exhibitors missing classes.
10. All entry fees must be paid by the entry deadline to be eligible to show in the Midway FFA Livestock Show.
11. Entry fees are as follows:
 - a. Jackpot Show- $10 per head
 - b. Showmanship Show- $10 per head (see rule 13)
12. Entry fees will be waived for exhibitors providing at least $50 in sponsorships by individuals or businesses. (i.e. one $50 sponsorship waives one jackpot entry, $100 waives one jackpot and one showmanship entry)
13. Only one project per species per exhibitor will be eligible for the Showmanship Show.
14. For any species, three head constitutes one breed/class/division.
 - a. Jackpot Show- breeds/weight classes may be combined
 - b. Showmanship Show- will be broken down as follows, however, three exhibitors constitutes a division. Divisions may be combined (by age first, then experience) as needed. Heats may be used when necessary.
